The Scoop

Akari has fallen in love with childhood chum Hiroyuki, but life keeps getting in the way of their high school romance. When Multi—a robotic maid with a heart of gold and a body of steel—swopt her way through the halls of their school, Hiroyuki saw an opportunity to teach and Akari saw an opportunity to learn about the ways of man. But even with Multi's help, Akari's patience is wearing thin. With distractions galore and a few new friends to keep them busy, Akari and Hiroyuki are moving further and further from their moment of truth. Perhaps a trip to Hokkaido will give Akari a chance to declare her love...

What?

HEY...

JUST ONE

Akari and Hiroyuki are made for each other—Hiroyuki just doesn't know it! After waiting for the perfect moment to fess up, Akari will have to shout out her feelings to the clueless Hiroyuki before he seeks love elsewhere. And while a school trip to Hokkaido may be the perfect setting for the confession, cold feet might spoil the deal. Akari will have to put her fears aside and capture Hiroyuki's heart, or face the consequences of a high school romance gone wrong!
